

Easy Read News

May 2025

Australia's election is over. CID asked the Government to improve health care for people with intellectual disabilities. Good health care is a right.

Len lives in Junee and works at CID. He helps people with disabilities work with businesses. You can watch his story online.

In May, CID talked about health care and easy websites. They help groups be inclusive with Easy Read workshops and plans.