

Goods to the US dropped 20% in April due to new tariffs by President Trump. He wants more US-made goods and different trade deals.

The trade deficit got smaller. Imports from Canada and China were low. Car, medicine, and toy imports fell, but goods from Vietnam and Taiwan rose.

Trump spoke to China's leader to fix trade problems. US is talking to other countries. Trump's tariffs are the highest since the 1930s.