

Airlines charge for checked bags. People are upset and try to use only hand luggage to avoid extra fees.

Before, bags and meals were free with tickets. Now, airlines charge extra for them.

More people are buying small suitcases to avoid extra charges. Many share packing tips online.

Some people want rules to stop airlines from charging too much. IndiGo does not charge for checked bags.

Some airlines charge for hand luggage. This has caused complaints in Europe. Rules say no extra fees, but "reasonable" size is unclear.