

A Special Café for Everyone

Order drinks using British Sign Language at the Dialogue Express Café. Staff will teach you. It's in a train carriage for everyone.

Hakan Elbir started the café to help break down barriers between deaf and hearing people. He hires and trains deaf staff to make the café more.

At the café, you order by signing your drink choice. Deaf staff make coffee by feeling the milk's heat. It's a fun and special experience.