

Helping Farmers in Ukraine

Families in Ukraine are having a hard time because of the war. Landmines in fields make it hard to farm and care for animals.

The UN says families need help with planting and harvesting. FAO gives seeds and feed, but more help is needed for farms and safety.

These families need help to grow food. Without it, they may struggle to eat and earn money. Support keeps them safe and farming.