

A doctor in Norway was jailed for 21 years for hurting women. He used his job to do bad things. He can't be a doctor anymore.

A doctor secretly filmed women in his office. Police found videos. Women aged 14 to 67 shared their stories. Crimes began in 2004.

The judge said the doctor did bad things and broke trust. The doctor said sorry for some, not all. They might ask another judge to look at it again.