

Kieran Tierney is back at Celtic. He signed a five-year deal. He left Celtic in 2019 for Arsenal.

Tierney played on loan at Real Sociedad. He returned to Celtic to win more trophies. Manager Brendan Rodgers is happy he's back since February.

Tierney is happy to be back at Celtic. He learned in Spain and wants to do his best. His move comes as Greg Taylor's contract ends soon.

Scott Brown thinks Tierney is a great fit for Celtic and could be a future captain. Tierney wants to win more trophies and show his skills.