

Working Together on Sea Safety

Countries met to stop Russia's shadow fleet breaking sea rules. They worry about flagless ships being dangerous and breaking laws.

Countries will work together to make ships follow rules. They will make guidelines to keep the sea safe and ensure everyone knows and follows them.

The group fears ships may harm the sea and trade. They want help from other countries to stop this, as it could affect the whole world.